BIG FIRE AT KOBE.

Extensive Damage.

Shortly after 9 a,m. on Sunday, says a Kobe contemporary of June 25, the "A godown at Wadnakicho, Hyogo, the premises of the Tokyo Warshouse Company, was found to be ablaze. When the fire was discovered the godown was entirely envoloped in flames. Fire brigades and police officials soon rendered assistance. and owing to their praisoworthy efforts the flames were got under at about 11.15 o'clock. The godown in which the fire originated, together with six small dwelling houses adjoining, were totally destroyed and the stock of raw cotton contained in the godown was almost entirely burnt. The godown cover ed 300 tsubo of land, and the six houses 80 tsubo. These buildings were insured with the Meiji Fire Office for yen 10,000, the cotton being insured with the same company for you $50,000. The cause of the fire is unknown, but the theory is that, while bales of the raw cotton were being thrown into the godown fire was caused by the concussion of the hoop iron binding one of the bales as it struck against the stone floor. The cotten must in that case have smouldered for some time and the fire was not discovered until it was too late to say either the goods or the buildings.

THE BOMBAY RUN.

Increased Japanese Activity.

The N.Y.K. are about to extend their service on the Bombay run by the addition of three steamers, which will make up nine vessels on that route, says the "Kobe Herald." There will consequently be a nine days' service between Kobe and Bombay instead of a fortnightly one, as heretofore. The point of departure has hitherto been Kobe but now that the service has been extended the steamers will leave Yokohama and Kobo on alternate sailing 2181 dates. The vessels leaving Kobe will make additional calls at Penang and Madras, Shanghai being omitted on the outward voyage. The regular ports of call are in future to be Hongkong, Singapore, Colombo and Bombay,

The vessels to be used on the Bombay line are as follows :-

Byojun Maru (belonging to N.Y.K.) 4,806 Kagoshima Maru (do.).....4,405 Wakamiya Maru (bolonging to Naval Totomi Maru Etoro Blaru Takazaki Maru Eboshi Maru Moyoro Maru Kagoshima Maru (belonging to Edami-

THE EARTHQUAKE.

A city, teeming with life and joy is sud denly changed into a tomb-a living tomb, perhaps-by the exertion of the forces ofnature. And then we stand appalled at the magnitude of those forces, and look upon what has happened with wonder! Yet our daily life offers a spectacle quite as strange in many respects, if less noticed, because we are more familiar with it. What wo cat and drink is changed by the alchemy of nature into bone and muscle, brain and nerve. If a proper drink be chosen, a form of liquid food, all the requirements of nature can be fulfilled. In Van Houten's Cocoa, for instance, one has a boverage that supplies the chemical laboratory of the stomach with all that it requires for the building up of a strong healthy body and sound nerves.

Smith: "Good morning, Jones." Jones: "Yes; our household now re-presents the United Kingdom," Smith: "How's that?"

Jones: "Why, you see, I am English, my wife's Irish, the nurse is Scotch, and the baby wails."

BEAUTY AND THE PICKPOCKET.

The "Japan Limes" says that a superb beauty, elegantly drossed, put in an af pearance at the Isezaki-cho police station, Yokohama, recently and attracted the keen attention of all the men present. She asked the police to transfer the surveillance over her from Yokohama to Nagoya. - The fact' is that she is a notorious woman, named Okin Fukazawa, aged. 24, whose profession is to cheat gentlemen traveling by the Tokaido Railway, and the railway is her home. She has a lover who is a pickpocket, and on account of the chivalrous spirit with which, scoundrel as she is, she seems to be gifted, she is respected among the light-fingered gentry. Recently she was discharged from prison, and is still under the surveillance of the Yokohama police. She wants to proceed to Nagoya, where her lover lives. The police have not accepted the application, but railway passengers ought to be always cautious against being duped by this lady, whose beauty makes her a dangerous customer,

MAYOR SCHMITZ, OF FRISCO.

SAN REANCISCO, June 15. Schmitz applied to the Court on the 15th to be released on bail in order to enable him to continue his duties as Mayor in the event of his appealing against the conviction. His request was, however, rejected, and he has been placed in confinement. The Municipal Reform Party is making efforts to depose him from the Mayoralty, but he will not resign until judgment has been given by the superior Court. He is attending to municipal business in prison. New York, June 15.

The consensus of opinion favours James Duval Phelan, who filled a previous term as Mayor of the city between 1896-1902, when, whatever his faults, he left a clean record as a man whose large 2.00 private means relieved him from the danger of pecuniary corruption. Ex-Mayor Phelan is only forty-six years of age, and a man of recognized culture and liberal views.

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY. This is the age of research and experiment, when all unture, so to speak, is ransacked by the scientific for the comfort and happiness of mon. Science has indeed made giant strides during the past century, and among the—by no means least important—discoveries in medicine comes that of Therapion, particulars of which will be found in snother column. This preparation is unquestionably one of the most genuine and reliable Patent Medicines everintroduced, and has, we understand, been used in the Continental Hospitals by Ricord, Rostan, Johert, Velpeau, Maisonneuve, the well-known Chassaignae, and indeed by all those who are regarded as authorities in such matters, including the celebrated Lallemand, and Roux; by whom it was some time since uniformly adopted, and that it is weather the attention of those who requires uch This is the age of research and experiment, wi was some time since uniformly adopted, and that it is worthy the attention of those who requires uch a remedy we think there is no doubt. From the time of Aristotle downwards, a potent agent in the removal of these diseases has like the famed philosopher's stone) been the object of search of some hopeful, generous minds; and far beyond the mere power—if such couldever have been discovered—of transmuting the baser metals into gold is surely the discovery of a remedy so potent as to replenish the failing energies of the comfirmed rous in the one case, and in the other so effectually, speedily and safely to expel from the system without the hid, or even the knowledge, of a second party, the poisons of acquired or inherited disease in all their proteon forms as to leave no teint or trace behind. Such is The New French Remedy Theraplou, which may certainly rank with, if not take precedence of, many of the discoveries of our day, about which no little ostentation and noise have been made, and the extensive and ever-increasing demand that has been created for this medicine wherever introduced appears to move that it is destined to cast has been created for this medicine wherever intro-duced appears to prove that it is destined to cast into oblivious all those questionable remedies that were formerly the sole reliance of medical men. Therapion may be obtained in England, direct from the propeletor, and of the principal Chemists and Merchants throughout the Colonies, Iddia, China, Japan, &c., not even excluding such remote districts as Central Africa, the Pill Islands, &t. THE CRIME OF EMPIRE.

We received by post in the last mail copy of a pamphlet printed at the offices of "The Planet," says the Singapore "Free Press." We are not aware whether this document was sent by the author, or by a friend, and it does not appear whether it is copyright, but the material of the article is so remarkable, considering that it is written by the ruler of a country which has in times past acquired some of its territories such as Limbang by force, a ruler who however holds a unique position in regard to the acquisiton of his kingdom, and whose Far Eastern experience has been gained during a life of half a century spent here, that we take it to be almost a duty to reproduce the article-in full, and commence

PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE. I write the following remarks with diffidence and some reluctance, though not without a certain confidence, based upon my long experience in the Far East, which dates back over fifty years, during which period I have had natives of mixed races continually around me mostly Mohammedans, amongst whom are some look upon as being almost my best friends in the world. I have thought deeply over the subject upon which I am new writing, and if I pass remarks which may appear wanting in respect to my King and country, I trust the gravity of matter may be my excuse for plain speaking. I wish to point out that the methods of governing native races can never be a success so long as they tend to wars, and the killing of one another to become the rule rather than the exception. It is something dreadful to contemplate, and yet too true, that nearly if not all of our magnificently built colonial towns and colonial developments of every description have their foundations upon the bones of the aborigines of the soil. One asks if the benefits bestowed upon their successors are sufficient to justify such sacrifices. I am fully aware that there are many occasions when bloodshed cannot avoided, and that a certain amount of severity is necessary in governing races, white or dark, but as we rule at present I fail to see any hope of improvement respecting the real elevation of the July, 10 to 12.30 200 yards Peak Range; natives by intellectual culture. brotherly, love and good will taught us by our forefathers and by St. John I Why put school-boys and those who come to pray under the emblems that stand for shot and shell? Is it not time enough when the boy becomes a man to let him choose his profession, warlike or otherwise? The military spirit should be held apart from the peaceful occupations of life, unlessbrute force is to be made the god of our destiny, which seems to be the object the present day. What we really require is intellectual improvement, and circulation of broad views on all subjects; but such nowadays is the second and not the first consideration, as it should be. NEW YORK, June 20. The union of employees of the Commercial Cable Company has for some time past outertained a grievance against the Company on the score of unfair discrimination against individual employees in the matter of pay and promotion, and recently submit tod certain proposals to headquarters for fairer treatment. So far, however, these representations have been ignored, and at a late meeting of the committee of employees it was resolved to sanction a strike to compel acquiescence. It is expected, however, that the movement will not become goneral, and that it will be confined to the thereto seaboard stations. Hopes are also entertained that a compromise will be effected before the strike assumes really serious proportions.

"Shanghai Mercury." A NEW COMPASS:

Peter Perogrinus, who lived about 1260; is understand to be the inventor of the pivoted mariner's compass. Many and notable are the improvements which since that date have been made in this all important aid to save navigation. Indeed, one might almost suppose that there was third chamber of the Supreme Court at little room for any new idea on the subject. Elbing has dismissed the case against the A spirit compass, which differs in one notable particular from other compasses,

> As regards the need for this new compass, the inventor explains, that in these days of high speed steamers, where the compass is frequently placed well forward in the vessel, there is apparently a twisting motion of the ship as she makes her way through the water. This motion, together with the greater vibration experienced because of the forward position in which the steering compass is placed in fast modern steamers, has a disturbing effect on the compass card. To overcome this trouble Mr Dobble has propared a spirit compass, the essential feature of which is the reduced size of the floating card in proportion to the diameter of the compass bowl. It is a well-known scientific fact that if a vessel containing liquid is subjected to motion, that motion is imparted to the liquid itself, the area of disturbance of the contained fluid being greatest at the sides of the containing yesael. The primciple of the new compass is that, by removing the periphery of the card further than usual from the inside surface of the bowl in other words, using a smaller card-greater steadiness will be obtained. Thus, by using a 7-inch card in a 10-inch bowl, and at the same time leaving a considerable space between the body of the float and the bottom of the bowl, it is claimed that a perfectly steady compass under all conditions is obtained. In regard to the distance of the card from the "lubber's point" this is obvinted by introducing a special "lubber line" in proximity to the compass card.

It is known, principally from experience gathered on the trial trips of fast steamers overshallow water, that the bottom interfores with the free movement of the ship which is steaming above. It is the same Does it pay to act the part of a good in the compass, and hence the need for a deep spirit bowl. In this new compass which is specially designed for fast mail torpedo-boats and fighting ships, tho card is of tale, suspended on a pivot agato cap. It is known that if the compass needles, which direct the card, are made of a greater longth, than, say, four inches the needles may have the effect of inducing magnetism into the correcting globes placed on either side of the binnacle. To prevent this, the needles of the Dobbie compass are not longer than four inches. This putent spirit compass, with its smaller card, will, wo understand, shortly be placed on the
